A fresh approach to beautiful bathrooms...

We source products from the world's leading bathroom manufacturers, which ensures we can provide the latest designs and innovations across every category from sanitaryware, furniture, brassware and showering products through to cisterns, valves and even kitchen sinks.

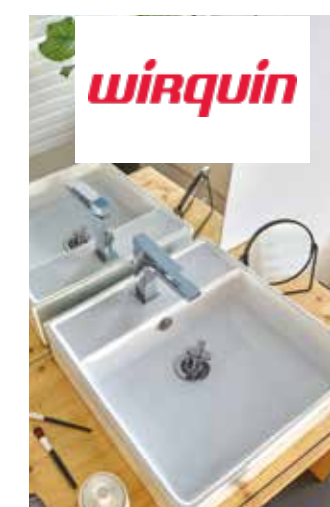

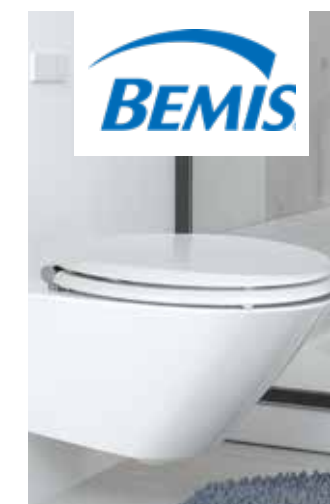

At Smiths Briten, we like to think of ourselves as your go-to bathroom distributor – a true one-stop shop for everything you need. With decades of experience behind us, we've built strong relationships with independent retailers across the UK who rely on us for quality, consistency, and good old-fashioned customer service. We're here to make your life easier, with a wide range of bathroom products ready to go when you need them.

We're proud to work with a brilliant mix of trusted, comprehensive brands that help bring bathrooms to life – from well-known names in brassware and ceramics to stylish furniture and innovative tech. Whether you're after everyday bestsellers or something a little more premium, we've got you covered. We're all about making it simple for our customers to get their hands on the right products, at the right time – all in one place.

Want to explore more?

Our trusted partner brands each have their own brochures available where you can explore 100s more products - just email sales@smithsbriten.co.uk and we'll send them your way.

- Full encapsulated baseboard, made from environmentally friendly flaxboard, a durable material used for fire doors
- Heat retaining properties, keeping the water at temperature for longer compared to a standard bath
- All baths are supplied with a European-designed channel leg set for added stability
- No predrilled tap holes, allowing you to select from a wide variety of brassware options
- 10 year guarantee
